Contest Chair Sylvia Ochs announced that there will be no major changes. Minor and cleanup changes will be in the PJ.

Membership Co-Chairs Lola Jaegers and Linda Voss presented a skit on conversations about ESA. They gave many examples and ideas on ways to increase chapter membership.

Social Media/Webmaster Aletha Bolt introduced the "Groupme" program for members to stay in touch with friends and family. It works on Windows, iOS, Android and the web. It is simple to add anyone to a group using their phone number or e-mail address. For more information contact Aletha at aletha.bolt@yahoo.com or webmaster@oklaesa.org.

Second Vice President/Educational Director Mona Quaid Johnston gave a presentation on her theme "Keep Calm and Relax" and had members participate in a project demonstrating relaxation.

Hope for Hero's Chair Sandy Lackey reported that she has had positive responses from soldiers receiving pillow cases. This project is ongoing for anyone interested in sending more. Brenda Yates shared a list of wish items for the troops and Sandy has a copy for those interested. Other projects include crocheted beanie hats and crochet balls and she has instructions available for those projects. A project was suggested for some sort of pouch or reusable bag to keep the desert sand out of personal items, but a pattern has not as yet been found. A raffle will be held at the September 15 Leadership meeting for anyone who brings items.

Easter Seals Chair Jeanne Kindley-Lifton reported that she has been in contact with Jed Johnson at the Easter Seals National Office in Washington, DC. He said that Easter Seals has two items of note related to service delivery in Oklahoma: 1) The Senior Community Services Employment Program (SCSEP.) This program is the largest federally-funded program for older adults who seek employment and training assistance as well as civic engagement. Through this transitional employment program Easter Seals partners with community-based non-profit organizations and government agencies. Easter Seals provides these services through a partnership with the AARP Foundation in Oklahoma in three locations (Tulsa, OKC, and McAlester). 2) Easter Seals is working with an organization called Fedcap that will be initiating service delivery in Oklahoma as Easter Seals Oklahoma. The date for re-initiation of Easter Seals services in Oklahoma has a projected date of January 1, 2019. "Woven Life" will not be credited this year for outstanding chapter. A check was received for Easter Seals and Woven Life. The Woven life was credited on the philanthropic report.

Jr. Past President/Disaster Fund Chair Peggie Sprinkle reported that donations are made to the Fund by sending the money to her at 1802 E. Norman St., Broken Arrow, OK 74014. Check must be made out to ESA Disaster Fund. She will send monies to the IC Disaster Fund Chair. Peggie handed out ESA Disaster Fund Blessings Jars. Members are to decorate the jar and place it where they will see it every day to collect extra change whenever they felt they received blessings. She also suggested that the jar be passed around at meetings.

OK MARC Reps Deb Hughes and Rosalie Griffith announced that the MARC Conference will be in Sioux Falls, SD on October 12-14. Registration will be $125.00 for the entire weekend.

ESA for St. Jude Ramona Bench reported that the Tulsa Dream Home sales were going strong and it will be given away in June. The OKC ticket sales just started last week and the home will be given away in August. A show of hands indicated that there is enough interest for a trip to Memphis for a tour of St. Jude's. She will contact ALSAC and make those arrangements.

Credentials Co-Chairs Darlene Cushenberry and Barbara Childers were covering the Tulsa Dream Home and not in attendance. Members were asked to see June Miller if they have not signed and designated a proxy for the IC Officers vote at Convention.

The remaining Executive and General Board members who did not give reports were introduced.
